Curriculum Coaching Hours

Our team of facilitators are here to support your curriculum work and provide the extra momentum you need to keep moving the work forward. We can brainstorm ideas, discuss next steps or provide feedback on work in progress. You can choose how to use coaching hours throughout the year; mix and match session topics to make the most of the time available. Topics can include:

Thought Partnership for Leaders

Focus: Provide school leaders with a fresh perspective on a variety of topics.

Audience: School and teacher leaders, such as administrators, heads of department and curriculum coordinators.

Potential Sessions:

- Discuss a long term plan for curriculum writing.
- Explore reports to analyse your current curriculum.
- Adapt or revise next steps in your curriculum review process.
- Brainstorm your accreditation preparation and how Atlas can help.
- Update unit or lesson plan templates.
- Create a unit style guide that aligns to your school's goals.

Curriculum Coaching for Teachers

Focus: Provide real time support for small groups of teachers.

Audience: Curriculum and/or instructional coaches, grade level leaders or unit developers.

Potential sessions:

- Review one unit together and provide specific feedback on unit content.
- Support teacher planning sessions or PLC meetings in real-time by answering questions around unit planning.
- Discuss teacher specific reports that are helpful in the curriculum review process.
- Orient new teachers to Atlas and walk through Atlas as it relates to their role.
- Explore the basics of unit writing and development.
