

Curriculum Consultation

with FariaPD

Individualized sessions designed to problem solve common questions and challenges

How can we celebrate success while continuing to improve our units?

Can someone review a unit with us to make sure we are on the right track?

I have so many new teachers in my department, where do we start?

How can we talk about curriculum development so it does not sound like extra work?

What are your questions?

How can I offer support to my Department & Grade Level leaders?

We've been in survival mode. How can we start to shift back into a proactive curriculum conversation?

How do I offer differentiated professional learning to my staff?

How can I start a review cycle conversation?

To schedule, contact pd@fariaedu.com